TABLE OF CONTENTS

General Information

ABOUT THE INSTITUTION

Established in 1903, Albany State University is a Historically Black College and University (HBCU) located in Albany, GA. In 2016, Albany State University consolidated with Darton State College, an access institution, into the new Albany State University. The institution builds upon the HBCU mission to serve an increasingly diverse student population and will continue to serve the access mission, offering workforce related degrees. With an enrollment of 6,122 (fall 2019), Albany State University is the largest Historically Black College in Georgia.

All through its history, Albany State University has been a catalyst for change in the Southwest Georgia region. The University is dedicated to educating students to become outstanding contributors to society.

The University offers certificates, transfer associate's degrees, career associate's, bachelor's, master's, and specialist degrees through the three colleges: College of Arts and Sciences, College of Professional Studies, and Darton College of Health Professions. The University emphasizes the liberal arts as the foundation for all learning by exposing students to humanities, fine arts, social sciences, and natural sciences. Global learning is fostered through a broad-based curriculum, diverse university activities, and expanding use of technology.

Accreditation
Albany State University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award certificate, associate's, baccalaureate, master's, and specialist degrees. Contact SACSCOC at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097, or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Albany State University. In addition, ASU has more than 50 programs with specialized accreditation.

Total Economic Impact Locally
The economic impact of the university on an eight-county region is calculated to be more than $244 million, according to a study released in 2019 by the University System of Georgia.

Tuition and Fees for Fiscal Year 2019 – 2020
Tuition and fees for an undergraduate associate full-time student taking at least 15 hours who is a resident of the state of Georgia are $4,720. Out-of-state tuition and fees for an undergraduate associate full-time student taking at least 15 hours are $12,660. Tuition and fees for an undergraduate bachelor full-time student taking at least 15 hours who is a resident of the state of Georgia are $6,950. Tuition and fees for an undergraduate bachelor full-time student taking at least 15 hours who is not a resident of the state of Georgia are $20,352. Tuition and fees for a graduate full-time student taking at least 9 hours who is a resident of the state of Georgia are $5,308. Out-of-state tuition and fees for a graduate full-time student taking at least 9 hours are $15,586.

Vision
Albany State University will be a world-class comprehensive university and a powerful catalyst for the economic growth and development of Southwest Georgia. ASU will be recognized for its innovative and creative delivery of excellent educational programs, broad-based community engagement and public service, and creative scholarship and applied research, all of which enrich the lives of the diverse constituencies served by the University.

Mission
Albany State University, a proud member institution of the University System of Georgia, elevates its community and region by offering a broad array of graduate, baccalaureate, and associates degrees, and certificate programs at its main campuses in Albany as well as at strategically-placed branch sites and online. Committed to excellence in teaching and learning, the University prepares students to be effective contributors to a globally diverse society, where knowledge and technology create opportunities for personal and professional success. ASU respects and builds on the historical roots of its institutional predecessors with its commitment to access and a strong liberal arts heritage that respects diversity in all its forms and gives all students the foundation they need to succeed. Through creative scholarship, research, and public service, the University's faculty, staff, students, and administrators form strategic alliances internally and externally to promote community and economic development, resulting in an improved quality of life for the citizens of Southwest Georgia and beyond.

2016-2019 Strategic Plan

Aspire to Excellence
Albany State University will aspire toward excellence in teaching and learning, thus becoming the first-choice institution for students from Southwest Georgia and garnering recognition as a premier southern regional university.

Embrace Diversity
As a historically black institution and led by a highly-diverse faculty and staff, Albany State University will embrace diversity in all its forms – including age, gender identity, race and ethnicity, country of origin, religion, ability level, sexual orientation, and veteran status – and seek to foster a similar acceptance and celebration of that diversity.

Expand Access to Higher Education
As an access institution, Albany State University will promote student success for all by welcoming students from varying levels of academic preparation; keeping costs low; offering flexible class times and instructional modalities; and pairing high student expectations with exceptional mentoring, advising, and tutoring.

Elevate Historically Underserved Populations Albany State University will recognize and address the many challenges that face African Americans and other students of color, adult learners, first generation students, students from low socioeconomic backgrounds, and others from underserved populations and form strong partnerships with K-12, government agencies, and community outreach organizations to increase access and success rates.

Promote Economic Development
As part of its commitment to teaching and learning, Albany State University will promote economic development in Albany and throughout Southwest Georgia by engaging in applied research, aligning its resources in support of identified needs, developing and enhancing academic programs to meet evolving needs, forming broad strategic partnerships, supplying a trained workforce, and fostering a sense of entrepreneurship.

Note: The cohort is defined as first-time, full-time, degree-seeking students who entered ASU in the fall semester. First-time students are those students who have not attended any postsecondary institution prior attending ASU. Full-time students are those who are enrolled in twelve or more credit hours. Students' degree and program listed above were declared at their matriculation term.
Blank Graduation Rate means there were not any student in the cohort for that particular program.
