The Office of International Education hosts the annual International Education Week (IEW), an initiative developed by the U.S. Department of Education, to promote programs that prepare Americans for the global environment and attract future leaders to study abroad, learn, and exchange stories of their experiences across the globe.

This week gives all Albany State University (ASU), students, faculty, staff and community members a chance to share and appreciate global engagements at ASU. They will also be aware of international students, faculty, and staff who contribute to the diversity that is so much needed in all educational institutions that strive to internationalize their campuses. We also acknowledge all ASU faculty who make efforts to internationalize their courses so that students who are not able to study abroad may acquire international and intercultural knowledge and skills via their various courses and campus co-curricular activities. All participants will learn through various study abroad exhibitions, country stands, and performances about the importance of international education, which is a critical component in realizing both the USG and ASU Strategic Plans.

As we celebrate IEW this year and the importance of diversity for global competency, ASU welcomes the community to all events. ENJOY!!!

Nneka-Nora Osakwe

Keynote Speaker Her Excellency Arikana Chihombori Quao MD

In her role as Permanent Representative to the African Union Mission in Washington DC, Her Excellency Arikana Chihombori Quao MD worked tirelessly towards fulfilling her mandate which was to undertake, develop and maintain relationships between the African Union and the Executive and Legislative branches of the U.S. Government, the African Diplomatic Corps, the Africans in the Diaspora and the Bretton Woods Institutions. This was specifically in relation to the implementation of the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA) and advancing the priority areas of Agenda 2063. In fulfilling this Mandate, she brought renewed energy to the AU Mission as well as new ideas and programs that were implemented since her appointment in 2016 to her departure in 2019. Her efforts at mobilizing the Diaspora as people of African descent and not as citizens of any single African country is unprecedented and exemplifies her ability to unify people around a common goal, speaking with one voice as one Africa and one Continent.

Additionally, H.E. Ambassador Arikana Chihombori Quao MD has been actively involved in various programs and projects of the African Union. In 2012, she became the Chair of the African Union-African Diaspora Health Initiative (AU-ADHI), where she was involved in mobilizing the African Diaspora health professionals to assist in addressing the healthcare needs of the African continent.

Even prior to her appointment as AU Ambassador, her contributions to the cause of Africa had earned H. E. Arikana Chihombori Quao MD many prestigious honors and awards. Two of her most cherished ones are an achievement award received in 1996 from the incumbent President at the time, H.E. the late President Nelson Mandela of the Republic of South Africa and the African Woman of Excellence Award in July 2015 during the AU Summit in Johannesburg, South Africa. She received this award alongside 15 other prominent African Women including the former President of The Republic of Liberia, Madam Ellen Johnson-Sirleaf, the former President of The Republic of Malawi, Madam Joyce Banda, and Mrs. Winnie Mandela, former First Lady of the Republic of South Africa.

She has firmly established herself as an advocate for women. In 2012 at an international conference for women, H.E. Ambassador Arikana Chihombori Quao MD represented Africa in Mar-Del-Plata, Argentina where she delivered a rousing speech on Violence Against Women. During this meeting, she shared the stage with two Nobel Peace Prize Winners, Adolfo Perez Esquivel from Argentina and Rigoberta Menchu from Guatamala.

In addition to the above honors, during her 3-year tenure as AU Ambassador to the United States, H.E. Ambassador Arikana Chihombori Quao MD won over 60 awards from various organizations within the Americas including Ambassador of the Year from Howard University.

Prior to her appointment, Her Excellency was a renowned Family Medicine Doctor in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, where she practiced medicine for over 25 years. She is a Fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians and a member of the American Association of Family Physicians as well as the Tennessee Association of Family Physicians.

She is married and the proud mother of 5 children.

Tajorean Jenkins

Tajorean Jenkins, ASU Overall Best Study Abroad Student

Business Management Major, Dominican Republic 2019

Tajorean Jenkins is a junior at Albany State University who hails from the beautiful, historical city of Savannah, Georgia. His major is Business Management with a minor in Spanish. Attending the Unsinkable Albany State University has allowed him to be a better individual by partaking in numerous extracurricular activities. He appreciates ASU for its opportunities that allow students to learn, develop, and prepare for their career after college. One of the best opportunities he has experienced is Study Abroad. During his time here, Tajorean has studied abroad twice: to Argentina in the Summer of 2018 and to the Dominican Republic in the Summer of 2019. Frederick Douglass took action to realize his vision for freedom, for education, for equality and social justice, for people of color, for women, and many others who needed someone to advocate for their benefit. These college presidents have agreed to match CIEE's $1,500 grant to their qualified students who applied for the Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship. It will enable dozens of students to participate in an international experience, just as Frederick Douglass did in 1845. It will change lives, just as Frederick Douglass' life was changed through his international experience.
