Being Ready to Write

- 1. Always have a wish list.
- 2. Don't wait for a grant application –just ask.
- 3. You only get what you ask for.
- 4. Have a standard elevator pitch.
- 5. Know your program's data and update it regularly.

Finding Funding Opportunities

6. Stay “in the know.”

7. Look for in kind donations.

Writing a Successful Grant Application

- 8. Ask your colleagues.
- 9. The physical application is the “front door” and first impression of your program.
- 10. Get feedback from funders.

Celebrating your win!

Bonus #11

Say “thank you” with words and images that allow the funder to see the grant having an impact.
