

Notice of Non-Discrimination

Albany State University is committed to equal opportunity, a culture of inclusion, and an environment free from discrimination and harassment in its educational programs, activities, and employment. Albany State University prohibits discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, religion, age, veteran status, gender, or sexual orientation in its programs and activities, including admissions and employment, as required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, and their implementing regulations.

Faculty, students and staff in the University community who feel they have been discriminated against in any of the categories above, should contact the Director of Equity and Compliance. Through the use of due process procedures, appropriate action will be taken to address instances of discrimination and sexual harassment.
